Subject: Invitation the 2018 ITSA and TESA Conference

Dear Colleague/s,

We are pleased to inform you that your paper/abstract proposal entitled "Problems and issues with the National Park System Pilot Program in China", has been accepted for presentation at the 7th International Tourism Studies Association (ITSA) Biennial Conference, which will coincide with the 2nd International Tourism Educators South Africa (TESA) Conference. The paper/abstract was double-blinded peer reviewed and will be included in the conference program. The conference will be hosted by the University of South Africa, at the CSIR International Convention Centre in the City of Tshwane, from 6-10 August 2018.

We would like to remind you that every person who participates in the conference must register online, whether she/he presents a paper or not. At least one author per paper must be registered, with the registration fee paid by the time of final paper submission, for inclusion in the conference proceedings. All papers are to be submitted online to itsa2018@unisa.ac.za by the 6th of July 2018. All abstracts, papers and presentations must be in English.

Conference registration is online, through the following URL link: <http://survey.unisa.ac.za/index.php/598674?lang=en>. Once you have registered, a representative from the appointed professional conference organiser, EPH PTY Ltd, will send you an invoice with detailed information regarding the partner airline(s), preferred accommodation partners, as well as pre- and post-conference tours, amongst others.

One author may be the official presenter of the paper; however, we encourage all authors to attend the conference. The final proceedings book will include only those papers for which at least one author has paid the registration fee by the 6th of July 2018.

The final program is being developed and you will be informed accordingly.

Thank you for your interest and participation in the 2018 ITSA and TESA Conference. We look forward to seeing you in South Africa!

With kind regards,
